How to Measure Your Parcel

Understand Volumetric Weight vs. Actual Weight as Shipping charges are calculated based on whichever is greater.

- Actual Weight

This is the physical weight of the parcel as shown on a weighing scale.

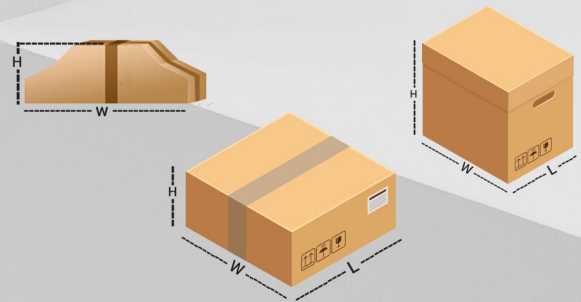

Example: A parcel weighs 4.2 kg rounded to 4.5 kg or 5 kg.

- Volumetric Weight

This measures the space a parcel occupies in the courier's transport vehicle.

Volumetric Weight (kg) = (Length × Width × Height) / 5000
